Hello all,

Attached is an updated sailing schedule. I hope everyone is having a great beginning to their season!

Also, Lady Patty will be taking part in The 2nd Annual Elf Classic Yacht Race this weekend so we will not be offering our usually scheduled trips on Friday or Saturday but will be back home and operational by Sunday's 1-3PM charter.

Please join us or encourage your guests to join us for the finish of the race at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum around 3PM on Saturday. It should be a nice chance to see some beautiful classic yachts under sail.

Cheers!

Jeff
